

Urban Residential Association Meeting
Monday, March 19th, 2007
Take 121 Arts
6:00 to 7:00pm

Chair: Skip Courtney

Total Attendees: 30

Secretary: Amy Walters

Meeting began at 6:00pm

Chad:

- Welcome and Overview of Take 121
- Invitation to Ballroom Dancing Monday March 26, 2007 ($15/single, $25/couple)

Skip:

- Overview of URA and our goals
- First Order of Business: Skip Courtney introduced the nomination for the URA Board of Directors: President-Skip Courtney, Vice President-Ben Bahill, Secretary-Amy Walters, Treasurer-Helen Walker, Director at Large-Todd Bulgarino. Sarah Barnett moved to accept the ballot and the motioned seconded. The ballots were collected.

Review of Committees and Reports:

- Event Committee: The Newsletter will be distributed in The Avenue Magazine published by Michael Thomas, bi-monthly. The Church Street Park Garage Sale will take place mid-May. Cost for a space at the sale is $25.00. Next months URA meeting will be moved to the mayoral debate at the City Library.
- Meet Your Merchant Committee: There is a District Merchant meeting this Friday March 23 at 3:00pm. Skip Courtney will try to attend.
- Safety & Green Committee
- HOA Liaison Committee: Our goal is to have a resident from each developed building represented in the URA.
- Communications Committee: Working on updating the website.

A Quorum was achieved and ballots collected. Votes were counted and the nominees for the Board of Directors of the URA passed.

Raffle: The Jumbo Shopping Cart was raffled off.

Open Forum

The floor was opened for discussion. Sarah Barnett announced the Nashville on the Rocks event to be held at the Country Music Hall of Fame Friday March 23, 5:30 – 9:00pm. She asked for volunteers. Tickets are $45.00 in advance, $55.00 at the door. Go to www.nashvilleontherocks.com for more information. Frieda Player introduced herself as a candidate for City Council in district 19.

The meeting was adjourned by Skip Courtney at 7:00pm.