Discussed Roll Offs; our neighborhood is entitled to 6 roll offs per year we can have a roll off delivered and everyone in our neighborhood can dump trash in them, rather than going to the dump and paying fees. We donated one of our roll offs to another neighborhood for their use. We can also request a neighborhood cleanup from the Juvenile Court.
Need to schedule a Roll of in our neighborhood – soon.
You are suppose to pick up after your pets every 24 hours (feces) call 791-4605 if you have a problem with your neighbor not cleaning up after their animals.
And the City will cite the owners.
Report odd odors to the police department.
Regarding Stimulus money for our Senior Center the money may go to the Cresio Building downtown.
No update on Quiktrip
Cleaning of Easements: Alleys - owners ARE responsible to clean and so are easements if on owners property. Fire Hazard. Notice of violations – there will be a $75 fee.
We should schedule our neighborhood cleanup when there is a Brush and Bulky pickup in our neighborhood.
- V. Report from Terry Mull/Chuck Mull, Treasurer
CANA will pay $40 to support TPD – become a member.
Motion and Approved – Chuck will process paper work.
- VI. Amy Harclerode, Guest Speaker – Big Brothers Big Sisters
amy@tucsonbig.org; 624-2447
Discussed working with kids in neighborhood.
- VII. Open Discussion
White Rock area – Graffiti on cemetery walls again, trailer park issues and stray dogs.
Traffic light Irvington and Campbell – TPD put up. Ajo and Park – Light changes too fast.
Nevada and Cherry Ave – Alley light – city needs to fix

Verde Meadows – Can NOT park on Southside of the street.

Verde Meadows – Need to write Association President (certified mail, return receipt), regarding issues in neighborhood – to get a response (14 lights out, weeds, residents with more than 2 animals, etc).

Adopt a street as a neighborhood.

Pima Council on Aging – Kids help clean yards, bond with seniors, Schools make a difference day.
