

Phoenix Police Department launches online reporting service for some crimes

On Feb. 27, the Phoenix Police Department launched a new online service for reporting minor theft, vehicle burglary, lost property and other crimes. Residents may use the online option to report criminal damage, fraudulent use of credit/debit cards, identity theft, lost property, theft, among other crimes.

The new online report service is available at phoenix.gov/police.

Residents may continue to use the police non-violent crime number, (602) 262-6151, to report these crimes, if they prefer. Phoenix residents will continue to contact 911 for emergencies and crimes in progress.
