Life in the Community

I hope everyone is well and has recovered from the last power outage. Many of us experienced tremendous food loss; some of you sustained property damage due to the storm. At the end of the day, all of us are blessed.

Notaries Public: From time to time, I get phone inquiries from Stevenswood residents about notaries public in the community. Please be advised that every bank branch has at least one notary on hand to provide free notary services to account holders.

Bereavements: On behalf of the residents of the Stevenswood community, I extend condolences to Mrs. Alice Battle, 3407A Courtleigh Drive, for the death of her husband, Mr. George Battle and to Mrs. Beverly Mason, 3416 Courtleigh Drive, for the death of her husband, Mr.

Harry Mason. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you mourn.

Sick and Shut In:

Please pray a healing prayer for Mr. James Lewis, 3403 Courtleigh Dr., Ms. Josette Powell, 8529 Stevenswood Rd., Dr. Ellen Gonzales, 3417 Edcrest Rd., Mrs. Bola Oyefeso, 1 Woodhue Ct., Mrs. Edith Kidd, 3310 Ben Valley, and for anyone else who is sick. Peace!

Randallstown Farmers'

Market: The Randallstown Farmers' Market takes place on the parking lot of the Randallstown branch of the Baltimore County Public Library every Wednesday from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. Please mark your calendars, come out, and support this effort. Gwendolyn West, a Stevenswood resident, is a vendor selling Avon products. Baked goods and crafts are available as well. The vendors need our support in order for this service to continue.
