Hall of Fame Greetings,

We were taught that working hard and having a positive attitude is the best way to find fulfillment each day. This is admittedly requires a delegate balance of independence and collaboration. To accomplish this, courage, confidence and character evolves in most women as they develop enduring friendships to help them to push along their passions. One person cannot be credited with the ultimate success of a total project! SLCW, for its members, has become the pathway to help accomplish many things in many ways singly or together by occasionally leaning on each other for strength and personal encouragement.

Congratulations to the seven outstanding women who are being honored. It is notable this Hall of Fame year that all of the honorees are members of the Salt Lake Council of Women, not that they have to be but a happy coincidence! Another is that this, the Hall of Fame's 80th year, converges with the launch of the 101st year of the SLCW. One time or another over these 101 years, our relationships have reached out to steady our single and collective efforts and bridged a gamut of emotions relative to promoting our goal of promoting Community Service for Civic Improvement.

Sincerely yours,

Janet Geyser

President 2012-2013
