

received 04-20-2015

Springfield Glen – Spring 2015 Newsletter

A reminder that the quarterly payments are due on April, July and October 1st. Invoices are no longer being sent. If you need additional coupons, you may get them online at springfieldglen.org.

Due to the thickness of the existing mulch beds, the board has decided to skip the mulch application for 2015. Several areas are so deep that interior damaged has resulted from heavy rains.

Please remember that no signs of any nature are allowed on the exterior of the units.

Please remember that parking is only permitted in your garage, in the drive immediately in front of your garage or on the City Street. Designated visitor parking areas are for guest of Springfield Glen only.

In the near future, the west side of the private section of Thornbriar Lane will be posted as No Parking. The street is too narrow for parking on each side.

A reminder to pet owner's to clean up their pets waste and to keep them on a leash at all times.

2015 garage sale dates are June 5th & 6th and September 4th & 5th.