

WHAT CAN AND CANNOT BE RECYCLED

The list of recyclable items continues to grow. Below is a current list of common household products that can or cannot be recycled.

RECYCLABLE ITEMS

All numbered plastics
Aluminum cans
Aluminum foil
Cardboard
Cereal boxes
Detergent containers
Empty aerosol cans
Envelopes
File folders
Frozen food boxes
Glass jars
Juice bottles
Junk mail
Liquor bottles
Magazines
Mixed paper
Newspaper
Pie tins
Plastic containers
Plastic milk jugs
Soda bottles
Telephone books
Tin cans
Used motor oil*
White paper

NON-RECYCLABLE ITEMS

Bathroom tissue
Bubble wrap
Cellophane
Clothes
Dishware
Dry cleaning bags
Facial tissue
Food
Food-stained paper
Green waste***
Household chemicals
Medical waste
Oil***
Padded envelopes
Plastic bags
Sharps
Styrofoam****
Tyvec-type envelopes
Used paper towels
Waxed cardboard
Window glass

Green waste, Oil and Styrofoam are not presently accepted in the upper and lower desert cities.