Treasurer (Barbara Watkins) estimated current funds at $5100.
- LPD report from Angie Ellis
 - Please report any suspicious persons or activity. There have been numerous reports of suspicious persons in the last 2 months.
 - Citizen complaints: ~~People not stopping at the intersection of Ariana & NY. Angie will reach out to David Urea for a traffic study. South of NY and Patterson someone is parking in the bicycle lane. LPD will address the issue.~~ This is still an issue, Angie emailed David Uria but has not heard back yet. David Uria has been invited to the July meeting to address this concern, parking on both sides of the street, and brick restoration.
 - LOCK YOUR VEHICLES!
 - 212 W Park St has been a concern with illegal activity, LPD is aware of the issue but is working to determine who the rightful property owner is.
- Michael Dunn- city Commissioner, discussed the proposed change to building heights. The city commission has not voted on this yet. At present the proposed increased would bring the new height for the specified property types to 55 feet. Also Mr. Dunn informed us that a "road diet" dry run would be taking place soon on South Florida Ave.
- Benjamin Vickers- Executive Pastry Chef at Honeycomb Bread. New bakery, baking in the D'Lucas building. He has only been open for a few months and currently is only operating in a whole sale capacity. He is currently serving Cob & Pen, 1961, Red Door, Concord Coffee, and other local restaurants.
