

8/14/2021 Highline Meadows HOA

Dear HOA,

I don't agree with your Two recent HOA Violation Letters to all members

You should not blame everybody when it's obvious one or two people might be involved

That's not how the legal system works in America. You are an HOA.

ie; when you have evidence , then you present , and then you send out the violation letter

You don't take a witch hunt on the whole building, but that's exactly what you're doing

Your latest two violations went to all the members of the building when only a couple of or maybe one might be doing it

We know who they are. Have you ever considered asking?

You are not fair , you are not being responsible, you are not investigating.

You were just going out to on "A whim", very unprofessional and outrageous.

You're pushing violation letters on innocent people in this community.

Your violation letters and actions to all the people of this Building , instead of the violating person is totally out of line.

This is a direct reflection of the HOA board

Definition: your HOA actions are as follows;

- Inconsistent, arbitrary, or capricious enforcement as blanket violations wasting money and time of the homeowners , when we know who the culprit is Decreasing morale among the homeowners and causing them to fight with each other
Possible harassment of innocent owners
-
-
- Not impressed with these actions of the HOA Board!!!