

Southern Trails Estates No Solicitation Policy

Established March 2016

Policy:

Southern Trails Estates is officially listed as a “No Solicitation Neighborhood” with the city of Broken Arrow. The City of Broken Arrow established Ordinance No. 3207 section II 7-3 D as follows:

“No person shall canvas or solicit the occupants of a residence where the premises or neighborhoods where a Homeowner’s Association has displayed a sign prohibiting such activity...”

Procedures:

Any homeowner may call the Broken Arrow police department if they see solicitors in our neighborhood. The police officer will issue tickets to the solicitors (no warning needed) since we are already registered as a “No Solicitation Neighborhood” and have signage posted at our entrance.

Exemptions:

The Broken Arrow city code allows for the following exemptions in the city code;

- Minors who are performing fund raising for recognized youth sports organizations, scouts, and religious institutions, which are headquartered or have established branches within the Broken Arrow city limits.
- The mere delivery of goods to the buyer after the placement of an order at the merchant's permanent place of business;
- Any 501(c)(3) community-oriented charitable service organizations which conducts sales as a part of an annual fund raiser.
